2011 Men's Junior World Championship in Greece - Referees –

Dear Handball Friends,

It is our pleasure to inform you that the Executive Committee has confirmed the proposal of the Playing Rules and Referee Commission to nominate you for the Men's Junior World Championship, to be taking place in Greece from 17 to 30 July 2011.

We would herewith like to cordially invite you to participate in the above-mentioned event and hereafter provide you and your national federation with a first range of information.

First, we kindly ask the federation concerned to confirm participation of their referees to the Head Office in Basle no later than 25 May 2011. You will find enclosed a corresponding participation form which facilitates your task. Furthermore, we kindly ask you to indicate your address details and fill in the size check and return it to the IHF Head Office no later than 25 May 2011. Based on your home airport you submit, the Greek organiser will work out the travel arrangements.

As mentioned above, the WCh will be held from 17 to 30 July. Arrival date in order to participate in the mini-course will be 15 July 2011. The referees are advised to stay active between now and the event with strong physical preparation in order to pass the fitness tests.

We kindly ask the national chief referees to support their referees in their preparations. The chief referees are kindly requested to confirm their support by signing the participation form. We thank you in advance for complying with the above-mentioned deadline.

Further information regarding the event will follow in due course.

Looking forward to hearing from you, we remain

Yours sincerely,
